

Frogmen swim into battle from a submerged submarine.

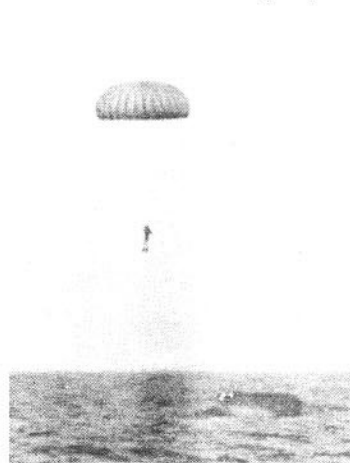

A UDT platoon slips from the sea to set demolition charges clearing the way for the marines.

An Underwater Demolition Team trainee grabs a snare and is jerked aboard a rubber boat pulled by a Large Personnel Landing Craft (LCPL) speeding at 30 knots.

A UDT swimmer parachutes into the sea carrying a deflated rubber boat (IBS).

Two swimmers enter the water at the target area. They will join up with other swimmers (not pictured) for the approach to the beach.
